

The task of fighting corruption

EVA JOLY
CORRUPTION HUNTER

Why should the Church bother?

AGNES ABUOM
PRESIDENT OF THE WORLD
COUNCIL OF CHURCHES (WCC)

CORRUPTION is a global challenge with local consequences.

To be able to understand it and fight it demands dialogue and sharing of experiences.

The Church has been instrumental in providing social welfare services and protecting human rights. Still, over the years many churches, Christian institutions and faith-based organizations have been hit by cases of corruption and financial mismanagement.

Will the Church play an active role in fighting corruption?
Can transparency and accountability increase ownership and financial sustainability of churches?

Are you concerned about the integrity of the Church?
